- our reliance on key personnel;
- the closing conditions in the agreement are not met or our inability to complete the investment for any reason;
- security breaches or other disruptions could compromise our information or our players' information and expose us to liability;
- whether businesses we acquire, including Rovio, will meet our growth expectations;
- our inability to obtain regulatory approvals, if any, to consummate the acquisition of Rovio; and
- our inability to protect our intellectual property and proprietary information could adversely impact our business.

Additional factors that may cause future events and actual results, financial or otherwise, to differ, potentially materially, from those discussed in or implied by the forward-looking statements include the risks and uncertainties discussed in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
